Dec. 20, 1927.

Mrs. J. J. Collier,
Jacksonville, Texas.

My dear Cousin:

I am sending you by today's parcel post two pairs of silk bloomers made in our new Nelson silk factory here at Barnesville. I trust that you will enjoy wearing them, as they are Southern product exclusively.

I expect to send Jim a nice tie tomorrow or next day. I cannot find one in town such as I would like to send Jim, and as I am going up to Atlanta, I will select his along with some other Christmas presents.

With love and sincere regards to you and Jim from all members of the family here in Georgia, I beg to remain

Yours most cordially,

JCC:S
